

Wermuth Europe Income Diversified Strategy (WEIDS)

March 2019

Investment philosophy

The Wermuth European Income Diversified Strategy (WEIDS) is designed to provide a large and steady income stream to investors over the long-term. It offers weekly liquidity by investing in listed European companies, bonds or cash. In a world of near-zero policy rates and bond yields, income-generating strategies are a must for the conservative investor.

The strategy is to buy listed and cash-rich European companies likely to benefit from the structural changes underway in the global economy, with an eye on the "green revolution".

The WEIS strategy can be used by investors who pursue a Divest-Invest strategy - it excludes the "The Carbon Underground 200", the top-200 listed fossil fuel companies.
